

Revised design to create separated bike lane

Under revised arrangement cyclists will be required to weave back into the traffic lane when existing the separated bike lane where conflict may occur with merging vehicles

Potential conflict point with merging bicycles and vehicles

Revised location of traffic island installed to prevent motorists entering bike lane. Under revised design a short section of separated bike lane will be in place.

